

Parents, teachers, faith leaders: You can't miss this FREE

Safety Workshop

Tips from leading experts on keeping kids safe from internet and social media dangers, plus ways to prevent youth suicide

Your child IS AT RISK:

16% of teens have email or social media accounts that their parents don't know about

Source: <http://kidsafefoundation.org>

5% of 6th graders, 7% of 8th graders, and 6% of 10th graders attempted suicide in the past year

Source: Lorain County Community Health Assessment

Online bullies easily taunt, tease others on anonymous apps and sites

Source: <http://www.pewinternet.org/2015/04/09/teens-social-media-technology-2015/>

Children under the age of 18 are 51 times more likely to experience online identity theft

Source: <https://www.cnn.com/id/44583556>

1 in 12 kids have exchanged messages with sexual content to other people

1 in 25 have sent graphic photos of themselves

Source: <https://sharedhope.org/2013/08/5-scary-statistics-about-children-on-the-internet/>

Saturday, April 21, 2018, 9 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Christian Heritage Church, 36465 Chester Road, Avon 44011

Join our FREE Workshop to keep kids safe. Get advice from leading experts from the Jason Foundation, EPIC, Inc., and the Lorain County Board of Mental Health.

Young children are navigating a scary world that the caring adults around them sometimes don't even know about. At this FREE Saturday workshop, experts will equip you with knowledge about youth suicide and digital dangers.

FREE. Registration requested:
<http://bit.ly/LCsafekids>

